

June 8 - June 12

1. Use the Raz-Kids website for a new reading assignment.
2. Use the website iknowit.com for new weekly quizzes.
3. Read your own book selection for at least 20-30 minutes each day. Use the choice board on the next page to choose at least 2 options for a reading comprehension assignment. (Choice board designed by the ASD-N Literacy team).
4. Writing: Write a story about an experience from the past few weeks at home. What did you enjoy the most? What did you find difficult or did not enjoy? Think of this as an end of the year writing piece and be sure to include everything needed for a story: Beginning, middle, end, word choice, punctuation, upper case letters in correct places, and interesting details.

Fiction Reading Response

What point of view is the story written in? How do you know?	Record one quote from the story that you really found interesting to you, made you think, or you really enjoyed. Why did you choose that quote?	Record three unfamiliar words that you came across while reading. What did you think each word meant? Why?
Record the title of your story. Why do you think the author chose this title?	What do you think may have inspired the author to write this particular story? Why?	What is the setting of the story? How does it affect the plot?
What is the theme of your story? How do you know?	Choose a character in your story. Write down three adjectives that describe the character.	Think about how the story could have a different ending then write your alternate ending.
