

Bonjour Parents,

Hope all is well! I am saddened that my time with your children was cut short, but our paths will cross again shortly. We are all in this together. I am sending you a list of suggested weekly literacy, numeracy and well-being activities to support your child's learning at home. Please do what works best for your family. Kids don't forget to play outside for fresh air and laugh with your family. Mr. Williston and Mr. Noel will be posting PE activities/challenges. I encourage you to check their pages as well. Mrs. Comeau will also be posting music activities, therefore I strongly encourage you to check out her page.
