

Home Learning opportunities – Week of June 1st – June 5th , 2020

Bonjour les amis,

J'espère que vous avez tous passé une bonne fin de semaine! La température était belle, le soleil brillait et il pleuvait un peu! La pluie était bonne pour les plantes.

Cette semaine, prédit par le météorologue, nous verrons le soleil quatre jours et nous verrons la pluie jeudi. Je crois qu'on pourra quand même participer aux Jeux Olympiques virtuels, organisés par le district scolaire.

Vous trouverez ci-joint des occasions d'apprentissage à domicile pour cette semaine.

Passez une bonne semaine!

Virtual Olympics

This is week 2 of Virtual Olympics organized by the Team at Anglophone School District – North. Downloaded on the Teacher Page, under the Notes file, you will find all that you will need to participate for the week; daily activities, video links modelling the activities and the score sheet. Collect your materials and have fun completing the activities with your families! Don't forget to collect data, fill out your score sheet and take picture/videos to share. Enjoy!

Microsoft Teams

We continue to have successful meetings, both whole group and individual.

This week 2 whole group meetings are scheduled. The following are the dates and times:

- Tuesday, June 2nd, @ 11:00 am. Agenda will be posted on Teacher Page under Notes file on Monday, June 1st, 2020.
- Thursday, June 4th, @ 11:00 am. Agenda will be posted on Teacher Page under Notes file on Wednesday, June 3rd, 2020.
- Also see calendar on Teacher Page under Notes section, title: Microsoft Teams for booking individual sessions for feedback. Please choose 3 times in the yellow sections, label them, 1st choice, 2nd choice and 3rd choice. Send the times to my email: colleen.wilt@nbed.nb.ca . I will book you in one of the time slots and send you an email indicating when your individual session will be held along with the agenda. During the week, there are not enough time slots to book each student in my class so on occasion I will book small groups.
- Wednesday, Thursday and Friday I will be working from the school. Wednesday I will be involved with meetings and testing the technology in the classroom to ensure all is working for Team Meetings on Thursday and Friday. Hopefully all will be working well.

“Je lis, je lis, littératie!” and IXL are both extended for use until June 30, 2020.

See Home Learning Opportunities for this week below.

Have a great week!

Stay safe!

Mme. Wilt
