Exploratory	Remembrance Day Here is a short Kids News Break video that talks about some of the history of Remembrance Day and why we should wear a poppy. Please take some time to watch this video to discuss this very important day with your children. We Will Remember Them and Give Thanks! https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=Q0wqnlMxaO4&t=1s   For fun today, or tomorrow on Remembrance Day, you can create a "torn paper poppy". Rip up some red paper. If you do not have red paper at home, color some white paper red and use this. Glue the pieces into a circle shape as shown in the picture. Then rip up some black paper and glue on for the centre. You can add a stem to your poppy. Email me a picture of your creations!
